

Can you get a refund in Volaris?

Yes, you can get a refund from Volaris, but only under certain conditions, as the airline generally follows a strict no-refund policy for its lower-tier fare options 1-(855)-738-4755. If you purchased a Basic or Classic fare, these are typically non-refundable unless specific circumstances apply—such as the airline canceling the flight, making a significant schedule change, or in cases of government-mandated travel restrictions or emergencies 1-(855)-738-4755. In such cases, Volaris may offer a full refund or provide a Volaris electronic credit (known as VPass or VClub Wallet) that can be used for future bookings 1-(855)-738-4755.

Passengers who purchase the Vuela Plus fare or add extra flexibility to their itinerary may be eligible for partial refunds or free changes, depending on the timing and terms of the purchase 1-(855)-738-4755. Additionally, if you cancel your ticket within 24 hours of booking, and the booking was made at least seven days before the departure date, you are eligible for a full refund under Mexican and U.S. consumer protection regulations 1-(855)-738-4755.

If your reservation was made through a third-party platform like Expedia, Priceline, or a travel agent, you must contact that provider directly, as they are responsible for processing your refund based on both their and Volaris's policies 1-(855)-738-4755. In some cases, Volaris may refer you back to the travel agency that issued the original ticket 1-(855)-738-4755.

In special situations, such as medical emergencies or the death of a passenger or immediate family member, Volaris may offer exceptions to their refund policy if proper documentation is submitted 1-(855)-738-4755.
